

CONTENTS

THE PROBLEM OF PHYSICAL PUNISHMENT AND ITS PERSISTENCE: THE POTENTIAL ROLES OF PSYCHOANALYSIS

- 1 The Problem of Physical Punishment and Its Persistence: The Potential Roles of Psychoanalysis: An Introduction to the Section
Paul C. Holinger
- 10 Why Do Parents Hit Their Children? From Cultural to Unconscious Determinants
George W. Holden
- 30 An Eriksonian Perspective on Physical Punishment and Its Impacts on Mental Health
Joan E. Durrant and R. Ensom
- 46 Helping Parents Spare the Rod: Addressing Their Unbearable Emotions
Leon Hoffman and Tracy A. Prout
- 62 Why Won't They Learn: Unconscious Underpinnings of Corporal Punishment
Jack Novick and Kerry Kelly Novick
- 73 Social and Psychoanalytic Perspectives on the Use of Physical Punishment among Low-Income African-Americans
C. Jama Adams
- 91 The Legal Framework Governing Corporal Punishment
Clare Huntington
- 96 Why Can't We See It?
Neal Spira

MARIANNE KRIS MEMORIAL LECTURE

- 109 The Developmental Object and Therapeutic Action
Carla Neely

THE CHILD ANALYST AT WORK

- 119 A Suicidal Adolescent: The Rocky Path from Physical Pain to Psychological Awareness
Jacqueline Langley
- 128 The Courage to Grow: Creative Transformation in Patient and Child Analyst
Jack Novick

SCARS THAT HEAL AND SCARS THAT DON'T HEAL: DESCRIPTION OF A PSYCHOANALYTIC TREATMENT ACROSS DIFFERENT AGES AND DEVELOPMENTAL STAGES

- 131 Psychoanalysis and Developmental Transitions
An Introduction to the Panel
E. Kirsten Dahl
- 133 A Child Analysis from Childhood into Adolescence: Elements of Therapeutic Action at Different Developmental Stages
Sydney Anderson
- 146 Discussion of Dr. Anderson's Case with a Focus on Transference and Countertransference
Stanley J. Leiken

(Continues on next page)

- 151 Discussion of Dr. Anderson's Case with a Focus on the Child's Use of the Analyst at Different Developmental Stages

Donald Rosenblitt

CLINICAL CONTRIBUTION

- 158 Treatment of a Dying Child

Debra A. Katz

FILM ESSAY

- 172 A Separation: Breaking Up Is Hard to Do

Judith A. Yanof

TURNING POINTS IN ADOLESCENT PSYCHOANALYSIS

- 182 Turning Points in Adolescent Analysis

An Introduction to the Section

Judith Fingert Chused

- 187 Resisting the Call of the Future: Turning Points in an Adolescent Analysis

Claudia Lament

- 199 Helping the Meeting to Begin: A Discussion of Claudia Lament's Paper, "Turning Points in Child Analysis"

Anne Alvarez

- 204 Turning Points in Adolescent Psychoanalysis and the Centrality of Transference Interpretation: A Discussion of Dr. Lament's Case of Grace

Calvern E. Narcisi

- 208 "When a Patient Is Unable to Work in the Transference": Dr. Lament's Response

Claudia Lament

THE IMAGINED INFANT: THE FIRST ANNE MARIE SANDLER COLLOQUIUM

- 216 The Imagined Infant

An Introduction to the Section

Linda Mayes

- 220 The Portable Psychoanalytic Frame: Evenly Suspended Attention, Bick's Method of Infant Observation and Its [Unexpected] Application by an Observer in a Day Care

Talia Hatzor

- 230 Absolute Hospitality and the Imagined Baby

Joan Raphael-Leff

- 240 Meeting a Brilliant but Quirky Mind: Insights Offered by Infant Research

Alexandra Murray Harrison