

ANDRÉ GREEN REVISITED

Representation and the Work of the Negative

edited by

Gail S. Reed and Howard B. Levine

 Routledge
Taylor & Francis Group
LONDON AND NEW YORK

CONTENTS

IPA PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE	vii
ABOUT THE EDITORS AND CONTRIBUTORS	ix
INTRODUCTION: André Green, a personal appreciation Howard B. Levine	xv
PART I: REMEMBRANCES
CHAPTER ONE
In dialogue with André Green René Roussillon	3
CHAPTER TWO
The place of André Green in contemporary psychoanalysis: a personal remembrance Jean-Claude Rolland	21
PART II: THE DEAD MOTHER
CHAPTER THREE
Re-membering the dead mother Howard B. Levine and Anna Migliozi	29

PART III: REPRESENTATION

CHAPTER FOUR

- Green's theory of representation revisited 47
Gail S. Reed and Rachel Boué Widawsky

PART IV: THE WORK OF THE NEGATIVE

CHAPTER FIVE

- The negative and its vicissitudes: a new contemporary 65
paradigm for psychoanalysis
Fernando Urribarri

CHAPTER SIX

- The death drive and the work of the negative in 87
André Green's work: metapsychology, clinical practice, and culture
Cláudio Laks Eizirik, Luciane Falcão, and Zelig Libermann

CHAPTER SEVEN

- Thought and the work of the negative 113
Marie France Brunet

PART V: CLINICAL APPLICATIONS

CHAPTER EIGHT

- The work of the negative in action 135
Talya S. Candi and Elias M. da Rocha Barros

CHAPTER NINE

- Repetition, transformations, and après-coup 161
Rosine Jozef Perelberg

CHAPTER TEN

- A universal psychotic core: some clinical consequences 175
of André Green's contributions
Francis D. Baudry

- INDEX 197