

Marion M. Oliner

Psychic Reality in Context

Perspectives on Psychoanalysis,
Personal History, and Trauma

International Psychoanalytical Association
Psychoanalytic Ideas and Applications Series
Series Editor: Gennaro Saragnano

KARNAC

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	vii
ABOUT THE AUTHOR	xi
SERIES EDITOR'S PREFACE	xiii
INTRODUCTION	xv
PROLOGUE A: Personal reflections on three analyses and their aftermath	xxi
PROLOGUE B: Excuse me for having been born: the fate of a German Jew during the Second World War	xxxix
CHAPTER ONE The role of historic events in treatment	1
CHAPTER TWO Actual experience, memory, and the assimilation of trauma	21

CHAPTER THREE
The elusive dimension of external reality in psychoanalytic theory	39
CHAPTER FOUR
The limit of omnipotence	52
CHAPTER FIVE
Life is not a dream: the importance of actual perception	66
CHAPTER SIX
Conclusion: "The unconscious has eyes and can see"	83
CHAPTER SEVEN
Psychoanalysis from a different angle: "Jacques Lacan: the language of alienation"	97
REFERENCES	127
INDEX	137